

Canada's Resource Champion

Ignite Fredericton

Fredericton, New Brunswick

Ignite Fredericton is a non-profit community economic development organization that offers free and confidential business counseling and tools to help local entrepreneurs start, grow or locate their business.

Highlights from Ignite Fredericton's nomination

Ignite Fredericton has created a Natural Resource Task Force whose purpose is to leverage and cultivate economic growth and create jobs through responsible natural resource development as it relates to near and long-term projects in the Fredericton Region. As fellow New Brunswickers, the Natural Resource Task Force is committed to responsible and sustainable natural resource development in the province. Ignite Fredericton, and their task force, strongly believe in Fredericton's innovative businesses and know that if issues arise, some of the best solutions will come from within their own community. As project development continues, Ignite Fredericton's Natural Resource Task Force and its members will be publicly engaged in the process.
