

Canada's Resource Champion

Tim Gitzel

Cameco

Tim joined Cameco in 2007 as senior vice-president and chief operating officer. He was subsequently appointed president in 2010. Tim has extensive experience in Canadian and international uranium mining activities through more than 25 years of senior management and legal experience. Tim recently completed his service as chair of the World Nuclear Association. He is also a past president of the Saskatchewan Mining Association, and has served on the boards of Mining Association of Canada, the Canadian Nuclear Association, Sask Energy and the Saskatchewan Chamber of Commerce.

Highlights from Tim's nomination

In his leadership positions at Cameco, and previously at AREVA, Mr. Gitzel has been an industry leader in building relationships with the people and communities in Saskatchewan's north.

Under his leadership, Cameco has developed programs and partnerships in the north that focus on five key pillars: workforce development (including education programs designed to train the workers of tomorrow), business development, community investment, community engagement and environmental stewardship.

Nominated by Kent Smith-Windsor, Executive Director, Greater Saskatoon Chamber of Commerce.
